

Dear Parents, Families, Students and Staff,

This is the second in a series of Newsletters with a focus on the nexus between wellbeing and learning.

At Holy Family we ask our staff to build our students up. The first step in this process is getting to know each child. We ask staff to never speak disparagingly about students either individually or collectively. We believe that every child at Holy Family can learn: they are readers, authors and mathematicians. If we build them up, they will rise to the occasion:

- Their likes, their interests, what they're good at, and what they need help with;
- Their dislikes, what can upset them and how they express this, and their calming skills;
- Their favourite hobbies, books, songs, sports and TV programmes.

We like to know about their hopes and aspirations:

- Short and long term goals for their learning, building on what they can do well;
- Ideas for their future following their interests;
- Broad future dreams.

At Holy Family we encourage teachers to balance providing students with challenge whilst providing them with more than adequate support. Our school values are : Positive Emotion, Trust and Support.

We ask staff to consider how well they know and understand their students: their cultural history, interests, passions, strengths, sensitivities and differences.

We ask staff to reflect on how they use that information to:

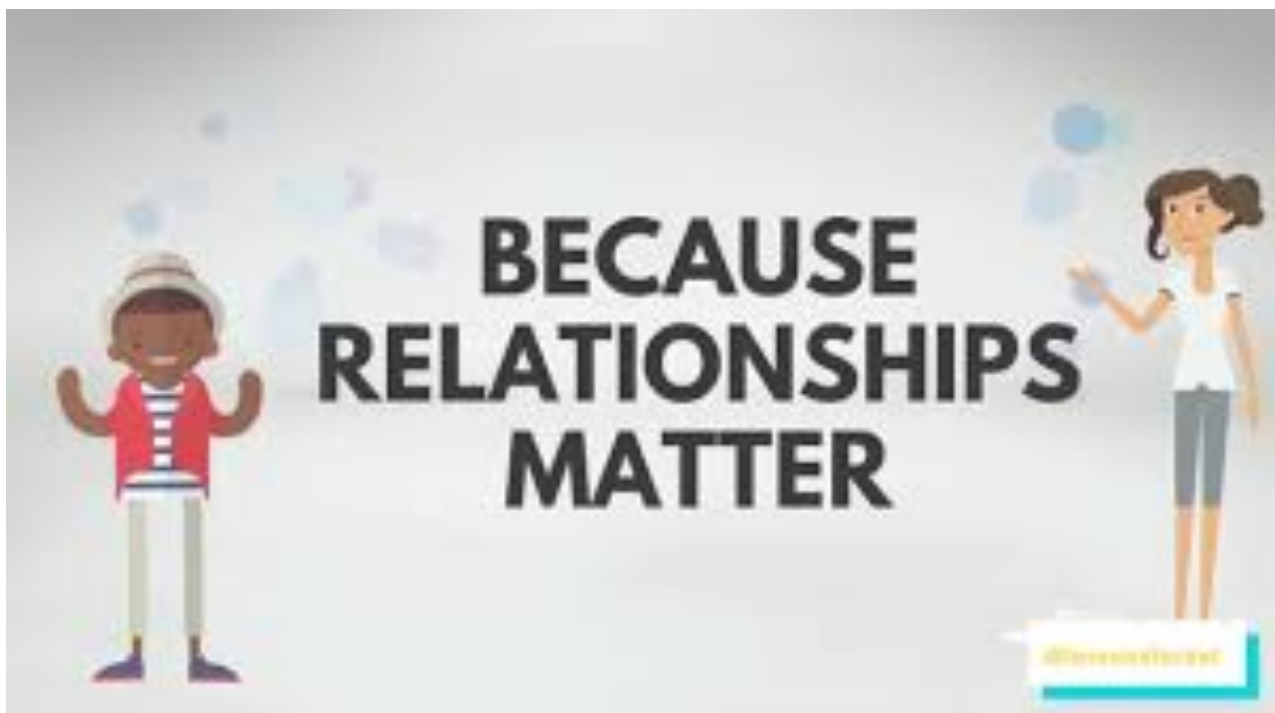

- congratulate a student on an achievement outside school;
- make personal connections to a student's cultural heritage such as their mob;
- create opportunities for students to share and develop gifts and talents that could remain hidden in school;
- share a kind word when a student is feeling low;
- eliminate or minimise situations that may cause unnecessary stress;
- identify the student's personal signs of stress or unhappiness and intervene early;
- have a timely conversation with a student about what staff have noticed and how to develop coping strategies;
- more accurately interpret wider classroom/playground behaviour and pre-empt potential areas of conflict.

At Holy Family we treasure our relationships with families and the child's safety, ongoing learning and wellbeing are all of paramount importance to us when we communicate with families.

- We take a no-surprises approach in our relationship with families. We don't "save up" conversations for parents and caregivers. We encourage teachers to keep in regular contact with you and work collaboratively to provide timely support for your children;
- We ensure that in written reports the focus is on what your child can do. In the classroom we ensure every child can access the curriculum at their level but that each child can take their learning to the ceiling;
- If we think that there are ways you can help at home, we will let you know.

I encourage you to continue to read our Newsletters, e-mails, text messages as we strive to keep you totally informed about what is going on at school. Also, we have the Class Blogs and Holy Family Writes to keep track of learning progress in our wonderful school.

Keeping Everyone Safe

There are a number of policies and procedures we follow in our school to keep our children safe. These policies cover:

- our recruitment processes;
- staff interactions with students;
- reporting of abuse and neglect;
- engaging with contractors;
- volunteers and visitors to the school;
- safety on camps and excursions;
- Cyber safety;
- implementing the Keeping Safe: Child Protection Curriculum.

The policies also guide how we respond to specific behaviours or concerns such as:

- Sexualised behaviour;
- Suicide and self harm;
- Alcohol and other drugs.

We also have processes for other critical incidents.

In keeping everyone in the community informed about these policies and procedures, I encourage you to view these via the following link to our school website:

Mission Day

I would like to thank the Holy Family School Community for their wonderful generosity in Mission Week for Fred's Van, Catherine House and the Catholic Mission.

Well done to the students, staff, and all who contributed to a wonderful day through their participation in our Mission Day Mass and the amazing activities that were organised by all classes.

Special thanks to the parents for their generosity in purchasing the tokens and Susan Debattista and Sue Dixon for preparing and providing the delicious vegetable pasta and drink.

FROM THE APRIM

Last Sunday, Christians celebrated the birthday of Church with the feast of Pentecost. It sparked the arrival of the Holy Spirit that through the gifts and the fruits the apostles received gave them the courage to carry on Jesus' mission of proclaiming the "Good News," to all nations.

The apostles formed communities that actively displayed qualities of sharing, love and forgiveness while they struggled against their own selfish desires and needs. They also performed miracles they never dreamed of as they suppressed their negativity and doubts and took risks.

With the Spirit of Jesus an energy was created that is the foundation of our Church today which continues Christ's mission on Earth.

Congratulations

I would like to congratulate the following students who will celebrate their Confirmation and First Holy Communion over the next two weeks;

Ruby, Veronikka, Kai, Dion, Mary, Lauren, Rowena, Bianca, Khyle, Caroline & Kalil.

Laptops

The laptops are a great tool for the students. Here are a few tips for looking after them:

- No food or drink near the laptop;
- Store in a safe and dry area;
- Use in a dry area (ie not near sinks or wash areas);
- Do not run or walk with the laptop in the open position;
- Do not run with the laptop;
- Always ensure the protective cover is on and not tampered with.

Parent Participation at Alive

At Alive Catholic Early Learning we believe and value families as the first educators of their child/ren. We know that the most effective learning for children occurs when families, teachers and educators support and work collaboratively together. As such, we greatly value partnerships with families to help your child/ren develop, grow and learn.

Parent Participation Group

This year we have established a Parent Participation Group which meets twice a term (in weeks 2 and 8). The purpose of the Parent Participation Group is to provide parents and caregivers with the opportunity to positively contribute their voice and participate in discussion about learning projects and strategic goals for our Early Learning Centre.

On Tuesday 4th May 2021, our Parent Participation Group meeting focused on the redevelopment of the Alive Teaching and Learning Philosophy.

The redevelopment of the Philosophy is one of Alive's quality improvement goals for 2021. It states the values, beliefs, theories and attitudes that act as guiding principles for our behaviour and is the lived expression of these elements in our daily practice.

The development of the Philosophy includes the voice and perspectives of all members of each of the Centres community including children, parents/families, staff and Holy Family Catholic School.

During the participation group meeting, parents personally reflected on the pillars of our Philosophy, adding their thoughts, ideas, beliefs, values and desires. This was shared and discussed as a group with the feedback

Parents also reflected on and discussed their image of child, educator and learning after viewing some footage of one of our children learning through their eating time:

'The Child is:

- Capable
- A learner from birth
- At the centre of learning
- Critical thinker
- Questioner
- Processes information
- Scaffolds own learning
- Learns in relationship

The Educator:

- Trusts the child
- Supports and guides
- Knows when to come in and support the child
- Provides opportunities for children to discover
- Communicates
- Has a clear purpose and intent for learning
- Learns in relationship with the child

Learning is:

- A process
- Develops skills
- Develops qualities and dispositions
- Lifelong

Our parents' reflections, values and perspectives were deeply insightful and knowledgeable and will help greatly to shape the values and beliefs presented in the Philosophy.

Following the Parent Participation Group meeting, one of our parents wrote 'thank you so very much for the wonderful meeting last night. It was so warm, welcoming and inspiring'.

We sincerely thank our parents Loveth, Payal, Thu, Nicholas and Loretta for attending and participating in this opportunity. Our next Parent Participation Group meeting is on Wednesday 16th June 2021 from 5pm to 6pm with refreshments available in our dining room from 4:30pm. The focus of our next meeting is the development of our outdoor learning spaces. All parents and caregivers are welcome.

Mother's Day Breakfast

This year we honoured and celebrated the mothers and women in our community who we value so much with events across our centre.

Children in St Anne celebrated with a prayer service where they shared what they love about their mum and a special song.

Our creative arts project saw children across the centre expressing their love for their mum through various art forms such as watercolour painting and collage to create a unique artwork.

On Friday 7th May a breakfast was held in our dining room where children with their mums and grandmothers gathered to spend some special time together at the beginning of the day.

At Alive Catholic Early Learning we recognise the importance of mothers and significant women in children's lives and the valuable role that families have in loving and raising their children and thank them for all they do.

The Most Holy Trinity - Year B

The Bible and I Prayers in the Bible 6 (continued)

Prayer is talking to God.

People in the bible is a people of prayer. One can find prayers everywhere in the Bible. Abraham the father of the faithful was a man of prayer. He lived always in the presence of God. Moses, chosen to be the liberator of the people of Israel from slavery in Egypt, was in continuous dialogue with God.

"As we read the Old Testament we note one figure who stands out from among the others: Moses, precisely, as a man of prayer. Moses, the great prophet and leader at the time of the Exodus, carried out his role as mediator between God and Israel by making himself a messenger to the people of God's words and divine commands, by leading it towards the freedom of the Promised Land and by teaching the Israelites to live obeying God and trusting in him during their long sojourn in the desert. However, I would say also, and above all, by praying.

Moses prayed for the Pharaoh when God, with the plagues, was endeavouring to convert the Egyptians' hearts (cf. Ex 8-10); Moses asked the Lord to heal his sister Miriam, afflicted with leprosy (cf. Num 12:9-13); he interceded for the people which had rebelled fearful of what those who had spied out the land would report (cf. Num 14:1-19); he prayed when fire was about to burn down the camp (cf. Num 11:1-2), and when poisonous serpents decimated the people (cf. Num 21:4-9); he addressed the Lord and reacted by protesting when the burden of his mission became too heavy (cf. Num 11:10-15); he saw God and spoke "to him face to face, as a man speaks to his friend" (cf. Ex 24:9-17; 7-23; 34:1-10, 28-35).

And on Sinai, even while the people were asking Aaron to make a golden calf, Moses prayed, explaining with symbols his own role as intercessor. The episode is recounted in chapter 32 of the Book of Exodus and there is a parallel account in chapter 9 of Deuteronomy." (Pope Benedict XVI)

"And the Lord instructed Moses to tell Aaron the priest and his sons how to bless the children of Israel with this prayer:

May the Lord bless you and keep you.

May the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you.

May the Lord lift His countenance upon you and give you peace."

"And this prayer shall put My name on the children of Israel, and I will bless them," (Numbers 6:22-27)

A quote: 'Prayer is the inner bath of love into which the soul plunges itself.'

St. Jean Marie Baptiste Vianney
