

Dear Everyone,

Every day at Holy Family is Catholic Identity Day. However today we are having special focus on our shared faith in our God and taking time to express our faith in our particular religious traditions. We commenced the day by viewing video messages from our Parish Priest, Father Shibu. Some people may think this topic could be beyond younger children. Our Reception children responded immediately with some of these observations.

What is Catholic identity?

- Hannah - The world is different, people are different.
- Alana - God made all the people different from each other
- Alexandros - The Church loves all the people, all the people are different
- Elijah - Everyone is a different shape but still like God
- Connor - some people might have different hair or different skin...that's ok, God loves everyone
- Monique - God made this world, people be kind to everyone and love everyone and everyone is welcome

Kuyungani

This week we released forty Yarra Pygmy Perch into our ponds in the fish farm. We enjoy a wonderful collaborative partnership with Urrbrae Agricultural High School at Myrtle Bank. We will breed from this cohort of fish and at a future stage they will be released into the wild. This study of ecology is fundamental to children gaining a sense that they are a part of a world far bigger than themselves and their local community.

Dining Hall

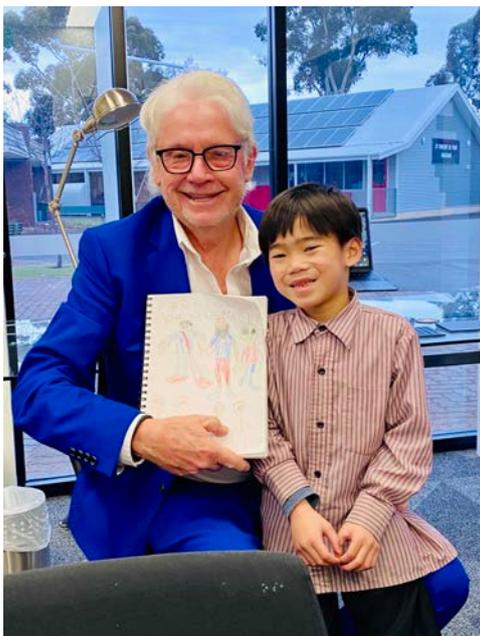

This week I attended Dining Hall with R/1FD and R/1KJ. The children were provided with a wonderful lunch taking into account their dietary and cultural needs. It was wonderful to watch the children co-operate, share together and help with packing up. Congratulations to our canteen staff Susan and Sue and to the classes who have supported the Dining Hall experience throughout the term by organising and supervising.

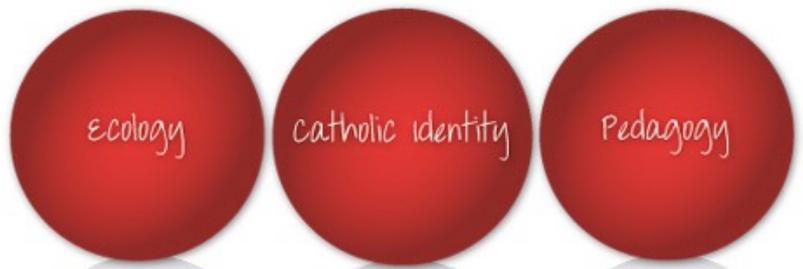

Literacy at Holy Family

As you know Holy Family has had a particular focus on Reading in our school. We have greatly increased the accessibility of books to children not only in the library but also in classrooms. My sincerest thanks to our literacy coaches Beth Hawkes and Maria Angilletta for their guidance of our teachers and children to be the best literacy scholars they can be. It was a great pleasure for me to read Li One's writing and we shared his joy together with that of his teacher Margot Papillo in this seminal event. I have included in this news for your information some of the exemplary pieces of English writing by our students. I encourage you at home to enable your child to write whenever the opportunity presents itself.

Six Things I Love about MUM

I love my mum because she is cheerful when I come back from school. My mum is hardworking for me she tells lot of jokes which make me laugh. My mum loves me very much and I love her as well. My mum is amazing because she cooks my favourite dinners. My mum love presents on Mother's Day. She loves chocolates on cake. My mum loves to play tennis with me. My mum is selfless for ever one My mum loves to cook while she sings a song with me. My mum loves to dance to music. My mum is thoughtful when she cooks for me.

Alien Invasion

The window SMASHED! The sound of radio-active spacecrafts were in our ears. Mia looked through the broken window. Emma went outside and saw lights in the sky, I didn't think that what I was thinking would be real.

I ran back upstairs and told Mia to go listen to the radio, Emma was just as frightened as I was. We all sat near the radio listening for some information. There was no talking for a while, Emma though it was the end of the world. Then someone started talking "Finally" Mia said. The person on the radio said there was an "ALIEN INVASION" We all screamed to death, Emma went bonkers>

We ran outside to the backdoor and the lights that Emma was talking about got bigger and more brighter, "ITS THE END OF THE WORLD!" Mia said, I brought the radio with us. Thats when I realised that the big flashlights were actually spaceships.

"OUR TIMES UP, WE'RE DEAD MEAT!" Said Emma. The spaceships came closer and closer. From the spaceship, out came glowing blobs. They started munching on our house thats when Mia screamed "THEY'RE MUNCHING ON MY HOUSE!" The Blobs took Mia and brought her with them. We weren't going to just stand there so we...no I jumped on one of the ships. Emma hesitated and did the same.....

Thoughts and stories from our students

If I found a pot of gold

If I found a pot of gold I would buy a diamond necklace that is blue and gold and I want it to stay on my neck. I would also like to buy a laptop that is rainbow and has photos of me and I would also like to buy a house and it would be a pink house with a big Ice-cream bucket full of Ice-cream in my house. I would also like to buy a school with a small amount of kids. I would like to buy for the toys barbie dolls and a set of books and I would like to put a big playground in my school and I would sell chocolates to a poor kid. I would also buy a huge apple cake with sprinkles. I would also buy a earring that is blue.

Melbourne Recount

On January 24 I went on a holiday to Melbourne! It took 8 hours to drive to Melbourne. Me and my family wanted to go to Melbourne because on January 24 it was my dads birthday. At Melbourne we met my family member on the first day of the trip we went to a restaurant and we got some very good food. Then when we finished eating we went back to the house and we played this game on the Nintendo switch called overcooked. Its a cooking game were you have t3 minutes to make a meal and then serve it. When we stopped playing we were watching tennis on the TV. The second day we went to the shops and explored more of Melbourne. After we did that we went back to the same restaurants day 1. Meanwhile we went back home and played on the switch and went to bed. Day 3 the second to last day we went to explore even more of Melbourne we even round a cool place with animals. Day 4 the last day we said goodbye and got things before welt. Then we drove off.....

FROM THE APRIM

From the APRIM

On Monday, June 29th the Church celebrates the feast of Saint Peter and Paul.

These two Saints shaped the Christian Church in the early years and built the foundation for the Catholic Church today.

Peter was given his name by Jesus. His name means rock or stone. This had great meaning to the people of Judea who could look around and see solid rock formations on one side, and on the other shifting sand dunes blown by the wind. In Peter, Jesus gave the Church a solid leader.

Paul first tried to stop the spread of Christianity by arresting Christians and having them thrown into prison. Then after falling from his horse he was blinded by a light where a voice spoke to him questioning why he was persecuting the Church. Then in a vision, he learnt that Jesus was the Messiah, and those who harm his followers harm Jesus. Paul spent the rest of his life preaching the gospel of Jesus.

They died as Martyrs under Nero between 64 to 67 AD.

At Alive Catholic Early Learning we believe that children are competent and capable learners from birth. As such, children aged 6 months to 3 years of age learn together in our beautiful 'Joachim' learning space.

Learning is a social experience and as such children learn in relationship, with and from each other. Malaguzzi, the founder of the Reggio Emilia approach emphasized that "it was not so much that we need to think of the child who develops himself by himself but rather of a child who develops himself interacting and developing with others". Therefore, building and sustaining relationships through the principles of Positive Education and the Reggio Emilia approach is core to our learning program.

Our Joachim learning space offers children the opportunity to learn in relationship with children of different ages. This replicates our social norms because as we grow older we interact, socialise, study and work with many different people, of varying ages. Thus, children at Alive Catholic Early Learning learn the social and emotional skills to be in relationship with a wide variety of people from an early age.

Our Joachim space is a warm and nurturing environment which replicates children's experience of family and home where there may be an older and younger sibling growing together. We have found that our toddler age children respond and engage with our babies with empathy, gentleness and kindness. They also learn how to care for each other and this is often replicated in their play experiences.
